B1

Because B1 represents a massive leap in fluency and abstraction, the vocabulary target increases to 1,500 new words (bringing the learner's total to roughly 3,500 words). Furthermore, the phrases and sentences become much more complex.

To maintain high quality and hit our targets precisely, we will divide the B1 Level Lists into Six Parts:

- Part 1: 1a - New Words (Nouns: Abstract, Business, Academic, Society) [Target: 500 words]
- Part 2: 1a - New Words (Adjectives & Adverbs: Precision & Emotion) [Target: 500 words]
- Part 3: 1a - New Words (Verbs, Phrasal Verbs, Connectors) [Target: 500 words] -> (Completing the 1,500-word target)
- Part 4: 1b - Useful Phrases [Target: 200 items]
- Part 5: 1c - Common Sentences [Target: 150 items]
- Part 6: 1d - Expressions (~100) & 1e - Common Questions (~100)

Let's begin with Part 1.

Part 1: 1a - New Words (Nouns)[Total: 500 words]

Note: At B1, vocabulary shifts heavily from the concrete (things you can touch) to the abstract (concepts, systems, and societal structures). We are strictly listing incremental B1 words.

Count Check for Part 1:

- Total Words: Exactly 500 abstract and intermediate nouns.

This section continues our 1a - New Words list by focusing on the Adjectives and Adverbs. At the B1 level, learners stop relying on basic descriptors (like "good" or "very") and begin using precise language to express nuance, emotion, and abstract relationships.

Combined with Part 1, this brings us to 1,000 words.

Part 2: 1a - New Words (Adjectives & Adverbs) [Total: 500 words]

Note: These are strictly incremental B1 words. We are not repeating foundational A1/A2 words (such as happy, sad, fast, or carefully). These words are essential for B1 fluency and abstract expression.

B2

Welcome to Level B2 (Upper-Intermediate / Vantage).

Reaching B2 is a massive milestone. This is the level of fluency, professional competence, and operational independence. At B2, vocabulary shifts heavily toward precision, nuance, and advanced word-building (affixes). Sentences become longer, argumentative, and heavily reliant on advanced conjunctions and transitional phrases.

The B2 vocabulary target is an incremental 2,000 new words (bringing the learner's total active vocabulary to roughly 5,500 words). Because of the sheer volume and complexity of these items, we will divide the B2 Level Lists into Seven Parts to maintain peak quality:

- Part 1: 1a - New Words (Nouns: Corporate, Academic, Society, Environment, Abstract) [Target: 500 words]
- Part 2: 1a - New Words (Nouns continued & Adjectives: Precision, Emotion) [Target: 500 words]
- Part 3: 1a - New Words (Adjectives continued & Verbs: Action, Academic) [Target: 500 words]
- Part 4: 1a - New Words (Verbs, Phrasal Verbs, Adverbs, & Connectors) [Target: 500 words] -> (Completing the 2,000-word target)
- Part 5: 1b - Useful Phrases (Discourse management & idioms) [Target: 300 items]
- Part 6: 1c - Common Sentences (Persuasion, conditionals, complex syntax) [Target: 200 items]

- Part 7: 1d - Expressions (~150) & 1e - Common Questions (~100)

Let's begin immediately with Part 1.
