This file contains 3 Approaches to be used in the course. 3 types of structures for the same BLOCK BUILDING methodology.

A1

To begin organizing this massive linguistic framework into an actionable course outline, we will tackle Level A1 (Breakthrough / Beginner) first.

As requested, I have maximized the number of Study Units to give you a highly creative, granular curriculum. I have designed 3 very different structural approaches (Try 1, Try 2, and Try 3) based on different pedagogical philosophies.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Chronological Immersion. This structure follows the logical narrative of a learner arriving in an American city, moving from basic survival introductions to eventually reflecting on their first week. It's highly scenario-driven.

- Study Unit 1: "Hello, America!"
    - Main Topic: Identity and Greetings.
    - Vocabulary Types: Numbers (1-20), core pronouns, social lubricants (Please, Thank you), basic greetings.
    - Grammar Points: Verb 'To Be' (Present Simple), Subject Pronouns, Basic S-V-O syntax.
    - Scenarios: The ESL Classroom survival (asking for repetition/spelling).
    - Settings: The Classroom / The Airport Arrival.
-
- Study Unit 2: "My Circle"
    - Main Topic: Family, Friends, and Descriptions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Family members, people nouns (man, woman, boy), basic adjectives (tall, short, old).
    - Grammar Points: Possessive adjectives (my, your, his), Demonstratives (this, that).
    - Scenarios: Showing photos and describing family members.
    - Settings: A living room / A coffee break chat.
-

- Study Unit 3: "The Daily Grind"
    - Main Topic: Time and Daily Habits.
    - Vocabulary Types: Numbers (20-100), time/calendar words, daily routine verb collocations (wake up, take a shower).
    - Grammar Points: Present Simple (Action verbs), Prepositions of time (in, on, at).
    - Scenarios: Describing a typical day from morning to night.
    - Settings: Home (Bedroom/Bathroom) / The Commute.
-
- Study Unit 4: "Hungry & Thirsty"
    - Main Topic: American Food and Immediate Needs.
    - Vocabulary Types: Food & Drink (American fast food/diner basics), "For here / To go."
    - Grammar Points: Verbs of need/want (want, need, like), Articles (a/an/the).
    - Scenarios: Ordering food from a counter, expressing likes and dislikes.
    - Settings: Fast Food Restaurant / Diner counter.
-
- Study Unit 5: "Navigating the Streets"
    - Main Topic: The City and Directions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Places in a city (hospital, subway, gas station), directional chunks (turn left, go straight).
    - Grammar Points: Prepositions of place (next to, across from), Interrogatives (Where, How).
    - Scenarios: Being lost as a tourist, asking for the restroom.
    - Settings: The Street / Subway station.
-
- Study Unit 6: "Stocking the Fridge"
    - Main Topic: Transactions and Grocery Shopping.
    - Vocabulary Types: Food (Produce/Meat), shopping phrases (how much, keep the change).
    - Grammar Points: Singular & Plural Nouns (Regular/Irregular), Basic 'How much' questions.
    - Scenarios: Buying things, handing over money, navigating aisles.
    - Settings: The American Grocery Store.
-
- Study Unit 7: "Dressed for the Weather"
    - Main Topic: Weather, Clothes, and Current Actions.

    - Vocabulary Types: Weather nouns/adjectives, clothing items, colors.
    - Grammar Points: Present Continuous (Actions happening right now), conjunction 'because'.
    - Scenarios: Looking outside, deciding what to wear, describing what someone is wearing.
    - Settings: The Bedroom (closet) / Looking out a window.
-
- Study Unit 8: "The Body & The Clinic"
    - Main Topic: Health and Physical Feelings.
    - Vocabulary Types: Body parts, adjectives for feelings (sick, tired, hungry), health phrases.
    - Grammar Points: The verb 'Have' (I have a headache), Negative Present Simple (I don't feel good).
    - Scenarios: Basic patient interactions, apologizing/sympathizing (That's too bad).
    - Settings: The Doctor's Office / Pharmacy.
-
- Study Unit 9: "The Weekend Unwinds"
    - Main Topic: Hobbies and Abilities.
    - Vocabulary Types: Verbs of play and study, adverbs of frequency (always, never), days of the week.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of ability (Can / Cannot), Connectors (and, but, or).
    - Scenarios: Meeting a peer at a party, asking "What do you do for fun?".
    - Settings: A house party / A public park.
-
- Study Unit 10: "Looking Back"
    - Main Topic: Introducing the Past.
    - Vocabulary Types: Past time markers (yesterday, last night).
    - Grammar Points: Past Simple (Verb 'To Be' - was/were) & highly common irregulars (went, had, did).
    - Scenarios: The Monday morning recap (How was your weekend?).
    - Settings: The Office breakroom / Classroom Monday morning.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (8 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Modular Categorization. This structure divides A1 into 8 distinct, self-contained "Spheres of Life." It is perfect for app-based learning or intensive courses where learners want to master one entire domain of vocabulary before moving to the next.

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of the Self
  - Main Topic: Core Identity.
  - Vocabulary Types: Subject/Object pronouns, countries, jobs, feelings.
  - Grammar Points: Verb 'To Be', Subject-Verb agreement, Interrogatives (Who, What, Where).
  - Scenarios: Formally introducing yourself, asking basic identity questions.
  - Settings: Immigration desk / First day of class.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of the Home
  - Main Topic: The Domestic Environment.
  - Vocabulary Types: Rooms, furniture, family members, pets.
  - Grammar Points: Demonstratives (This/That/These/Those), Possessives.
  - Scenarios: Giving a house tour, explaining who owns what.
  - Settings: The Apartment.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of the Clock
  - Main Topic: Time and Routine.
  - Vocabulary Types: Numbers, days, months, time chunks (in the morning).
  - Grammar Points: Present Simple Action Verbs, Sequencing (First, then).
  - Scenarios: Explaining schedules, asking "What time is it?".
  - Settings: The bedroom alarm clock / The bus stop.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of Commerce
  - Main Topic: Buying and Selling.
  - Vocabulary Types: Clothes, transaction phrases (credit card, receipt, size).
  - Grammar Points: Plurals, "I want / I would like."
  - Scenarios: Trying on clothes, paying at a register.
  - Settings: The Shopping Mall / Retail Store.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of Sustenance
  - Main Topic: Food and Digestion.
  - Vocabulary Types: American food, drinks, kitchen verbs (cook, eat, drink, cut).

    - Grammar Points: Countable/Uncountable basics (some water, an apple).
    - Scenarios: Fast food ordering, reading a basic menu.
    - Settings: The Kitchen / The Diner.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of Navigation
    - Main Topic: Movement and Location.
    - Vocabulary Types: Transport, city landmarks, directional phrases.
    - Grammar Points: Prepositions of place (in, on, under, next to).
    - Scenarios: Reading a map, asking a local for directions.
    - Settings: The Street / The Train Station.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of Action
    - Main Topic: The "Right Now" and Abilities.
    - Vocabulary Types: High-utility action verbs (run, walk, stop), weather.
    - Grammar Points: Present Continuous, Can/Can't.
    - Scenarios: Describing what people are doing in a picture, stating abilities.
    - Settings: Looking out the window / The Park.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of Memory
    - Main Topic: Basic Past Events.
    - Vocabulary Types: Past time markers.
    - Grammar Points: Past Simple (was/were, had, went).
    - Scenarios: Apologizing for yesterday, describing a past state (I was sick).
    - Settings: Catching up with a friend.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (12 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Grammar-Driven Building Blocks. This structure focuses strictly on the mechanics of the language. Vocabulary and scenarios are fed into the units solely to practice a specific grammatical syntax. This is ideal for highly analytical adult learners.

- Study Unit 1: The Equation (A = B)
    - Main Topic: The S-V-O Foundation.
    - Vocabulary Types: Nouns (Jobs, People), Basic Adjectives.
    - Grammar Points: The verb 'To Be' (Affirmative & Negative), Articles.

    - Scenarios: "I am Carlos. I am not a teacher."
    - Settings: Blank context / Classroom introductions.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Inquiry
    - Main Topic: Question Mechanics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Question words (Who, what, where, when, why, how).
    - Grammar Points: Inversion for 'To Be' questions.
    - Scenarios: Interrogating a peer.
    - Settings: A social mixer.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Ownership
    - Main Topic: Possession.
    - Vocabulary Types: Family, everyday objects (phone, keys).
    - Grammar Points: The verb 'Have', Possessive adjectives.
    - Scenarios: "Do you have my keys?", "This is my sister."
    - Settings: Home.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Routine Machine
    - Main Topic: Daily Habits.
    - Vocabulary Types: Routine verbs, time words.
    - Grammar Points: Present Simple (Action verbs), Third-person 'S'.
    - Scenarios: Describing your day vs. describing your friend's day.
    - Settings: The morning commute.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Need and The Want
    - Main Topic: Expressing Desire.
    - Vocabulary Types: Food, Drinks, Shopping items.
    - Grammar Points: Verbs 'Want', 'Need', 'Like' + Nouns.
    - Scenarios: Ordering food, expressing basic preferences.
    - Settings: The Restaurant.
-
- Study Unit 6: The "Do Not"
    - Main Topic: Negation of Actions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Hobbies, weather.
    - Grammar Points: 'Don't' and 'Doesn't'.
    - Scenarios: "I don't like rain," "He doesn't eat meat."

    - Settings: Casual conversation.
-
- Study Unit 7: The "Right Now"
    - Main Topic: Immediate Reality.
    - Vocabulary Types: Clothes, Colors.
    - Grammar Points: Present Continuous (Affirmative/Negative).
    - Scenarios: "I am wearing a red shirt," "It is raining."
    - Settings: Looking in a mirror/window.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Map
    - Main Topic: Spatial Reality.
    - Vocabulary Types: City places, directions.
    - Grammar Points: Prepositions of Place, Imperatives (Go, Turn).
    - Scenarios: Giving and receiving directions.
    - Settings: Downtown American City.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Plurality
    - Main Topic: Counting and Quantities.
    - Vocabulary Types: Numbers, Produce/Groceries.
    - Grammar Points: Singular/Plural rules, "How much / How many".
    - Scenarios: Buying multiple items, paying at the register.
    - Settings: The Supermarket.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Capability
    - Main Topic: Personal Limits.
    - Vocabulary Types: Action verbs (drive, speak, play).
    - Grammar Points: Modals 'Can' and 'Cannot'.
    - Scenarios: "I can speak English," "I can't drive."
    - Settings: A job interview (basic) / Peer chat.
-
- Study Unit 11: The Connector
    - Main Topic: Linking Ideas.
    - Vocabulary Types: Feelings, Body parts.
    - Grammar Points: Conjunctions (And, But, Or, Because).
    - Scenarios: "I am tired because I work hard," "My head and stomach hurt."
    - Settings: The Clinic.

-
- Study Unit 12: The Finished Action
    - Main Topic: The Past timeline.
    - Vocabulary Types: Past time markers.
    - Grammar Points: Was/Were, introduction to 'did' and basic irregulars.
    - Scenarios: "Where were you yesterday?"
    - Settings: Catching up after the weekend.

A2

Excellent choice. Using all three structural approaches gives you immense flexibility. You can offer learners a story-driven course, a topic-driven course, or a mechanics-driven course depending on their learning style.

Let’s advance to Level A2 (Elementary / Waystage).

At A2, the learner is moving past pure survival. They are expanding their timeline (past, future, and life experiences), adding rich descriptions, and navigating minor complications.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Chronological Immersion (The Trip). This structure follows the learner planning a trip, navigating travel complications, enjoying the vacation, and returning to daily life. It contextualizes the expanded A2 vocabulary and grammar naturally.

- Study Unit 1: "The Master Plan"
    - Main Topic: Future Plans & Logistics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Travel destinations (beach, mountain, city), scheduling words (flight, ticket, reservation).
    - Grammar Points: Future (Going to for plans), Present Continuous for future arrangements.
    - Scenarios: Discussing vacation plans with a friend, booking a flight.
    - Settings: A coffee shop / Living room laptop.
-

- Study Unit 2: "Packing & Prep"
    - Main Topic: Clothes, Shopping, & Quantities.
    - Vocabulary Types: Expanded clothing (hoodie, boots, swimsuit), luggage.
    - Grammar Points: Quantifiers (much/many, a lot of, a few/a little), Modals of obligation (have to / must).
    - Scenarios: Making a packing list, deciding what is necessary to bring.
    - Settings: The Bedroom (packing a suitcase).
-
- Study Unit 3: "The Airport Hustle"
    - Main Topic: Travel Navigation & Sudden Decisions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Airport vocab (boarding pass, security, gate, delayed).
    - Grammar Points: Future (Will for spontaneous decisions/promises).
    - Scenarios: Getting through security, reacting to a gate change ("I will run to the gate!").
    - Settings: The Airport Terminal.
-
- Study Unit 4: "Checking In & Chilling Out"
    - Main Topic: Accommodation & Conditions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Hotel/Airbnb vocab (deposit, check-in, WiFi password, pool).
    - Grammar Points: Zero & 1st Conditional (If I need extra towels, I will call the front desk).
    - Scenarios: Checking into a room, asking about hotel rules and amenities.
    - Settings: The Hotel Reception.
-
- Study Unit 5: "The Tourist Trail"
    - Main Topic: Geography & Comparisons.
    - Vocabulary Types: Nature and city landmarks, descriptive adjectives (crowded, historical, modern).
    - Grammar Points: Comparatives and Superlatives (This is the oldest museum in the city).
    - Scenarios: Asking for local recommendations, comparing two tourist spots.
    - Settings: The City Center / Tour Bus.
-
- Study Unit 6: "A Minor Emergency"
    - Main Topic: Health, Body, & Medical Advice.
    - Vocabulary Types: Symptoms (fever, cough, allergy), pharmacy items.

    - Grammar Points: Modals of advice (should / shouldn't).
    - Scenarios: Feeling sick on vacation, visiting a pharmacy, asking for advice.
    - Settings: The Local Pharmacy / Clinic.
-
- Study Unit 7: "Dinner & A Show"
    - Main Topic: Entertainment & Opinions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Media (concert, plot, actor), expanded food/dining (seafood, dessert, reservation).
    - Grammar Points: Adverbs of Manner (quickly, loudly, beautifully), "Would rather / Prefer".
    - Scenarios: Reviewing a movie or concert, ordering a complex meal.
    - Settings: The Restaurant / Outside a Theater.
-
- Study Unit 8: "An Interrupted Afternoon"
    - Main Topic: Storytelling & Interruptions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Phrasal verbs of movement (get in, get off, break down).
    - Grammar Points: Past Continuous vs. Past Simple (I was walking to the museum when it started to rain).
    - Scenarios: Telling a story about a minor travel disaster or surprise.
    - Settings: A taxi ride / A cafe during a rainstorm.
-
- Study Unit 9: "Sharing the Journey"
    - Main Topic: Life Experiences.
    - Vocabulary Types: Feelings and Personality adjectives (amazed, shocked, friendly).
    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect Intro (Have you ever...? I have never...).
    - Scenarios: Meeting other travelers, swapping life stories and travel experiences.
    - Settings: A hostel lounge / A tour group dinner.
-
- Study Unit 10: "Back to the Grind"
    - Main Topic: Work, Education, & The Weekend Recap.
    - Vocabulary Types: Office/Workplace vocab (deadline, coworker, meeting), collocations (do vs. make).
    - Grammar Points: Past Simple Mastery (narrating a full sequence of past events), Connectors (first, then, although, however).
    - Scenarios: Chatting with a coworker about how the vacation went, returning to the daily routine.

    - Settings: The Office Breakroom.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (9 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Modular Expansion. Building on the A1 spheres, this structure isolates complex A2 domains. Learners tackle specific zones of vocabulary bundled with the grammar that naturally fits those environments.

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of the Past
    - Main Topic: Memoirs and Recaps.
    - Vocabulary Types: Adverbs of time (yesterday, a few days ago), sequence connectors.
    - Grammar Points: Past Simple (Regular/Irregular mastery), Did/Didn't.
    - Scenarios: The weekend recap, telling a childhood memory.
    - Settings: Social gatherings / Casual chats.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of Tomorrow
    - Main Topic: Planning vs. Reacting.
    - Vocabulary Types: Schedule and calendar vocab, time duration chunks (for a long time, in the meantime).
    - Grammar Points: Will vs. Going to.
    - Scenarios: Scheduling a meeting, making spontaneous promises ("I'll call you back").
    - Settings: The Workplace / Texting a friend.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of Media & Culture
    - Main Topic: Entertainment and Opinions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Movies, music, internet, apps, adjectives for feelings (bored, excited, terrible).
    - Grammar Points: Expressions of preference (I prefer, I'd rather), Connectors of contrast (although, but).
    - Scenarios: Discussing a TV series, expressing likes/dislikes with nuance.
    - Settings: The Living Room (binge-watching) / A movie theater lobby.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of Wellness

    - Main Topic: Health and Medical Care.
    - Vocabulary Types: Body parts (expanded), symptoms, medical professions, healthy habits.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Advice (Should / Shouldn't), Imperatives.
    - Scenarios: Describing symptoms to a doctor, giving health advice to a friend.
    - Settings: The Doctor's Office / The Gym.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of Rules & Roles
    - Main Topic: Obligations and the Workplace.
    - Vocabulary Types: Office vocabulary, education terms (major, degree, exam), chores.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Obligation (Must, Have to, Don't have to).
    - Scenarios: Explaining workplace rules, discussing a university syllabus or household chores.
    - Settings: The Office / The University Campus.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of Scale
    - Main Topic: Measuring and Comparing the World.
    - Vocabulary Types: Physical properties (wide, narrow, heavy, light), geography.
    - Grammar Points: Comparatives, Superlatives, Adverbs of degree (very, quite, too, enough).
    - Scenarios: Shopping for an apartment, comparing cities or products.
    - Settings: A Real Estate Office / An Electronics Store.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of Action & Flow
    - Main Topic: How Things Happen.
    - Vocabulary Types: Action verbs, Adverbs of Manner (quickly, loudly, carefully).
    - Grammar Points: Past Continuous (interrupted actions with when/while).
    - Scenarios: Giving a police report, explaining why you were late.
    - Settings: A minor car accident scene / Apologizing to a boss.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of Conditions
    - Main Topic: Cause and Effect.
    - Vocabulary Types: Technology, problem-solving phrases.
    - Grammar Points: Zero & 1st Conditional.

    - Scenarios: Troubleshooting a computer ("If you press this button..."), discussing weather plans.
    - Settings: IT Support call / Planning an outdoor party.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Sphere of Experience
    - Main Topic: The Bucket List.
    - Vocabulary Types: Travel, extreme sports, food, abstract nouns (luck, fear, success).
    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect (Life experiences - Have you ever).
    - Scenarios: Playing "Two Truths and a Lie", discussing bucket lists.
    - Settings: A dinner party / A first date.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (12 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Grammar-Driven Mechanics. This isolates specific A2 syntactical structures. Vocabulary is fed in progressively to serve the grammar. It is highly systematic, perfect for learners who want to understand the "math" of the language.

- Study Unit 1: The Finished Timeline
    - Main Topic: Consolidating the Past.
    - Vocabulary Types: A2 irregular verbs (brought, caught, thought), time markers.
    - Grammar Points: Past Simple Affirmative, Negative, and Interrogative.
    - Scenarios: Interrogating someone's past ("Where did you go? What did you do?").
    - Settings: Blank context / Casual interview.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Interrupted Timeline
    - Main Topic: Background Actions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Daily routine verbs, weather.
    - Grammar Points: Past Continuous vs. Past Simple (when / while).
    - Scenarios: Setting the scene of a story ("The sun was shining, birds were singing, when suddenly...").
    - Settings: Storytelling.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Intention
    - Main Topic: Planned Futures.

    - Vocabulary Types: Travel and scheduling vocabulary.
    - Grammar Points: Going to + Infinitive.
    - Scenarios: Presenting a business plan or a travel itinerary.
    - Settings: A boardroom / A travel agency.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Reaction
    - Main Topic: Spontaneous Futures.
    - Vocabulary Types: Problem-solving verbs (help, fix, carry).
    - Grammar Points: Will / Won't for promises, offers, and snap decisions.
    - Scenarios: Offering help ("That looks heavy, I will carry it!").
    - Settings: Everyday helpful encounters.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Quantifier
    - Main Topic: Counting the Uncountable.
    - Vocabulary Types: Expanded food/ingredients, money, abstract concepts (time, advice).
    - Grammar Points: Much/Many, A lot of, A few/A little, Some/Any.
    - Scenarios: Checking inventory, writing a grocery recipe.
    - Settings: The Kitchen pantry.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Measurement
    - Main Topic: Comparing Nouns.
    - Vocabulary Types: Adjectives of scale, price, and quality.
    - Grammar Points: Comparatives (-er / more than), irregulars (better/worse).
    - Scenarios: Debating which car or phone to buy.
    - Settings: A car dealership / Tech store.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Extremes
    - Main Topic: Superlatives.
    - Vocabulary Types: Geography (mountains, rivers, cities), media (movies, books).
    - Grammar Points: Superlatives (-est / the most).
    - Scenarios: Giving awards ("This is the best movie of the year").
    - Settings: An awards ceremony / A trivia game.
-
- Study Unit 8: The "How"
    - Main Topic: Modifying Verbs.

    - Vocabulary Types: Adverbs of Manner.
    - Grammar Points: Adverb formation (-ly), irregular adverbs (well, fast, hard).
    - Scenarios: Critiquing a performance or a driver ("He drives dangerously").
    - Settings: A driving lesson / A talent show.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Rulebook
    - Main Topic: External vs. Internal Obligation.
    - Vocabulary Types: Workplace tools, uniforms, laws.
    - Grammar Points: Must vs. Have to vs. Don't have to.
    - Scenarios: Training a new employee on company policy.
    - Settings: First day at a new job.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Suggestion
    - Main Topic: Giving Advice.
    - Vocabulary Types: Health issues, personal problems.
    - Grammar Points: Should / Shouldn't.
    - Scenarios: Playing the "therapist" or "doctor" to a friend's problems.
    - Settings: A café advice session.
-
- Study Unit 11: The "If/Then" Machine
    - Main Topic: Real Possibilities.
    - Vocabulary Types: Weather, technology, basic cause/effect nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Zero Conditional (Facts) & 1st Conditional (Future outcomes).
    - Scenarios: Setting warnings ("If it rains, the game will be canceled").
    - Settings: A sports field / Event planning.
-
- Study Unit 12: The Life Resume
    - Main Topic: Unspecified Past to Present.
    - Vocabulary Types: Travel, life milestones, extreme activities.
    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect (Affirmative/Question - Ever/Never).
    - Scenarios: The job interview ("Have you ever managed a team?").
    - Settings: A formal job interview.
-

B1

Excellent. Moving into Level B1 (Intermediate / Threshold) represents a major shift in language learning. The learner is no longer just reciting facts or describing their immediate surroundings; they are learning to express abstract thoughts, navigate hypothetical situations, relay information, and use the language with diplomatic politeness.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Professional & Social Journey. This structure follows a young professional moving to a new city, applying for a job, navigating office politics, dealing with unexpected adulting crises, and building a social life. It contextualizes abstract B1 vocabulary naturally.

- Study Unit 1: "The Interview"
  - Main Topic: Career & Qualifications.
  - Vocabulary Types: Resume vocabulary, strengths/weaknesses, abstract professional nouns.
  - Grammar Points: Present Perfect vs. Past Simple (Discussing life experience vs. specific past events).
  - Scenarios: Answering behavioral interview questions ("I have worked in sales for two years").
  - Settings: The HR Office.
-
- Study Unit 2: "The Apartment Hunt"
  - Main Topic: Housing & Hypotheticals.
  - Vocabulary Types: Real estate, amenities, financial basics (deposit, budget).
  - Grammar Points: The 2nd Conditional (If I lived downtown, I would walk to work).
  - Scenarios: Imagining living in different neighborhoods; weighing pros and cons.
  - Settings: A Real Estate Office / Touring an apartment.
-
- Study Unit 3: "The First Week"
  - Main Topic: Adjusting & Duration.
  - Vocabulary Types: Emotions (overwhelmed, excited), degree modifiers (incredibly, somewhat).

    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect Continuous (I have been learning the new software all week).
    - Scenarios: Explaining how long you've been doing an ongoing task to a new boss or friend.
    - Settings: The Office Breakroom / After-work drinks.
-
- Study Unit 4: "Watercooler Talk"
    - Main Topic: Pop Culture & Media.
    - Vocabulary Types: Plot twists, genres, media verbs (binge-watch, stream).
    - Grammar Points: Relative Clauses—Defining & Non-defining (The director, who is from New York, won an award).
    - Scenarios: Explaining a complex movie plot or discussing a news story.
    - Settings: The Office Watercooler / A Cafe.
-
- Study Unit 5: "A Minor Disaster"
    - Main Topic: Unexpected Problems & Timelines.
    - Vocabulary Types: Car trouble, home repairs, abstract phrasal verbs (break down, figure out).
    - Grammar Points: Past Perfect—The "Past of the Past" (When I got to my car, someone had broken the window).
    - Scenarios: Explaining to the boss why you were late by sequencing two past events.
    - Settings: The side of the highway / The Manager's Office.
-
- Study Unit 6: "The Polite Complaint"
    - Main Topic: Customer Service & Diplomacy.
    - Vocabulary Types: Refunds, faulty items, conversational softeners ("To be honest," "I mean").
    - Grammar Points: Indirect Questions (Could you tell me why I was overcharged?).
    - Scenarios: Addressing a billing issue without being rude.
    - Settings: A Bank / A Restaurant.
-
- Study Unit 7: "The Office Gossip"
    - Main Topic: Office Politics & Relationships.
    - Vocabulary Types: Personality adjectives (stubborn, reliable, outgoing).
    - Grammar Points: Reported Speech—Statements (He said that he was quitting).
    - Scenarios: Relaying what someone else said during a meeting.

    - Settings: A whisper at a desk / Texting a friend.
-
- Study Unit 8: "The Misunderstanding"
    - Main Topic: Mysteries & Logic.
    - Vocabulary Types: Abstract nouns (evidence, confusion, mistake), B1 idioms.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Deduction (He must be sick; He can't be at the meeting).
    - Scenarios: Playing detective to figure out a workplace mystery based on clues.
    - Settings: A Conference Room.
-
- Study Unit 9: "The Annual Review"
    - Main Topic: Corporate Success & Systems.
    - Vocabulary Types: Business operations, manufacturing, tech terms.
    - Grammar Points: Passive Voice—Present & Past (Millions of units were sold this year).
    - Scenarios: Describing company achievements rather than personal actions.
    - Settings: A Formal Performance Review.
-
- Study Unit 10: "Five Years From Now"
    - Main Topic: Future Projections.
    - Vocabulary Types: Career progression, lifestyle goals, abstract future markers.
    - Grammar Points: Future Continuous (This time next year, I will be managing my own team).
    - Scenarios: Discussing long-term goals and life in progress.
    - Settings: A New Year's Eve Party / A Mentorship Meeting.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Abstract Themes & Society. This structure groups vocabulary by high-level societal themes. B1 is where learners begin discussing "the world" rather than just "themselves."

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of the Mind
    - Main Topic: Personality, Emotion, and Preference.
    - Vocabulary Types: Advanced adjectives (anxious, creative), abstract nouns (freedom, fear).

    - Grammar Points: Gerunds vs. Infinitives (I stopped smoking vs. I stopped to smoke).
    - Scenarios: Taking a personality test; discussing deep preferences.
    - Settings: A psychology class / Deep conversation with a friend.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of the Press
    - Main Topic: News, Media, and Society.
    - Vocabulary Types: Journalism (headlines, broadcast, biased, objective).
    - Grammar Points: Passive Voice (Present & Past) for news reporting.
    - Scenarios: Reading a newspaper; discussing a local event.
    - Settings: Reading the news on a tablet / A barbershop debate.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of Wealth
    - Main Topic: Personal Finance and the Economy.
    - Vocabulary Types: Bank accounts, loans, debt, interest rates, inflation.
    - Grammar Points: 2nd Conditional (Unreal Present/Future).
    - Scenarios: Discussing what you would do if you won the lottery; giving financial advice.
    - Settings: The Bank / Discussing the economy.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of the Unexplained
    - Main Topic: Mysteries and Assumptions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Crime, investigation, logical connectors (therefore, as a result).
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Deduction (must be, might be, can't be).
    - Scenarios: Trying to solve a riddle or figure out a neighborhood mystery.
    - Settings: A True Crime podcast discussion / A Neighborhood Watch meeting.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of Dedication
    - Main Topic: Hobbies, Studies, and Obsessions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Education systems, artistic pursuits, time markers.
    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect Continuous (Focus on duration).
    - Scenarios: Explaining a long-term passion project.
    - Settings: An art studio / A university campus.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of Hearsay
    - Main Topic: Rumors and Relayed Information.

    - Vocabulary Types: Communication verbs (whisper, claim, deny), B1 Phrasal Verbs.
    - Grammar Points: Reported Speech (Statements & Questions).
    - Scenarios: Gossiping about a mutual friend or recounting a crazy interview.
    - Settings: A dinner party.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of Etiquette
    - Main Topic: Politeness and Diplomacy.
    - Vocabulary Types: Conversational softeners, formal requests.
    - Grammar Points: Indirect Questions.
    - Scenarios: Asking a stranger for complex help; complaining politely at a hotel.
    - Settings: The Hotel Concierge / A crowded street.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of Connections
    - Main Topic: Relationships and Networking.
    - Vocabulary Types: Relationship phrasal verbs (get along, fall out, bring up).
    - Grammar Points: Relative Clauses (Who, Which, That, Where).
    - Scenarios: Describing exactly who someone is in a crowded room.
    - Settings: A networking event.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Sphere of Regret & Relief
    - Main Topic: Sequencing History and Mishaps.
    - Vocabulary Types: Transitions, sequence words, American idioms (under the weather).
    - Grammar Points: Past Perfect.
    - Scenarios: Telling a story about a day where everything went wrong.
    - Settings: A storytelling open mic / Therapy session roleplay.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Sphere of the Horizon
    - Main Topic: The Future in Motion.
    - Vocabulary Types: Future markers, career and lifestyle goals.
    - Grammar Points: Future Continuous.
    - Scenarios: Visualizing where you will be exactly a year from now.
    - Settings: A vision-board workshop / Career counseling.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (12 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Grammar-Driven Mastery. Intermediate grammar introduces entirely new concepts (like the passive voice or reported speech) that can confuse learners. This structure devotes one full, deep-dive unit to each major B1 grammatical mechanism, feeding vocabulary in to serve the structure.

- Study Unit 1: The Duration Engine
    - Main Topic: Focusing on the "How Long".
    - Vocabulary Types: Academic and work verbs (study, research, build).
    - Grammar Points: Present Perfect Continuous.
    - Scenarios: "I have been working on this report for six hours."
    - Settings: The Library / Late night at the office.
-
- Study Unit 2: The "Past of the Past"
    - Main Topic: Sequencing History accurately.
    - Vocabulary Types: Travel mishaps, logistical verbs.
    - Grammar Points: Past Perfect.
    - Scenarios: "The train had left by the time I arrived."
    - Settings: The Train Station.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Alternative Reality
    - Main Topic: The Unreal Present.
    - Vocabulary Types: Wealth, geography, abstract nouns.
    - Grammar Points: 2nd Conditional (If + Past, ...would).
    - Scenarios: "If I were the boss, I would change the rules."
    - Settings: A hypothetical debate.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Softener
    - Main Topic: Advanced Politeness.
    - Vocabulary Types: Directional, transactional, and bureaucratic nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Indirect Questions (Embedded syntax).
    - Scenarios: "Could you tell me where the manager is?" (Not: Where is the manager?).
    - Settings: A Government Office (DMV).
-

- Study Unit 5: The Messenger
    - Main Topic: Relaying Statements.
    - Vocabulary Types: Verbs of speech (say, tell, claim, state).
    - Grammar Points: Reported Speech (Shifting tenses back).
    - Scenarios: "She said that she was tired."
    - Settings: The Courtroom / Witness testimony.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Inquisitor
    - Main Topic: Relaying Questions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Interview vocabulary.
    - Grammar Points: Reported Questions (If / Whether).
    - Scenarios: "He asked me if I wanted coffee."
    - Settings: Relaying how a date or an interview went.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Speculator
    - Main Topic: Logical Guesses.
    - Vocabulary Types: Physical evidence (keys, coat, lights).
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Deduction (Must be, Might be, Can't be).
    - Scenarios: "His coat is here, so he must be in the building."
    - Settings: An Escape Room / Detective scenario.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Target (Present)
    - Main Topic: Focusing on the Object.
    - Vocabulary Types: Manufacturing, agriculture, global facts.
    - Grammar Points: Passive Voice (Present Simple).
    - Scenarios: "Coffee is grown in Brazil."
    - Settings: A Factory Tour / A Geography quiz.
-
- Study Unit 9: The History Target (Past)
    - Main Topic: Historic Inventions and Events.
    - Vocabulary Types: Art, architecture, literature, technology.
    - Grammar Points: Passive Voice (Past Simple).
    - Scenarios: "The Mona Lisa was painted by Da Vinci."
    - Settings: A Museum Tour.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Clarifier

    - Main Topic: Essential Information.
    - Vocabulary Types: People, places, things (Generic vs. Specific).
    - Grammar Points: Defining Relative Clauses.
    - Scenarios: "He is the man who stole my bag!"
    - Settings: A Police Lineup.
-
- Study Unit 11: The Detailer
    - Main Topic: Extra (Non-Essential) Information.
    - Vocabulary Types: Family members, cities, famous people.
    - Grammar Points: Non-Defining Relative Clauses (Use of commas).
    - Scenarios: "My brother, who lives in Texas, is a doctor."
    - Settings: A family reunion.
-
- Study Unit 12: The Future in Motion
    - Main Topic: Ongoing Future Actions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Time markers (This time tomorrow...).
    - Grammar Points: Future Continuous.
    - Scenarios: "Don't call me at 8 PM; I will be eating dinner."
    - Settings: Coordinating schedules with a busy team.
-

B2

Welcome to Level B2 (Upper-Intermediate / Vantage).

At B2, the training wheels come off. The learner is transitioning from an independent user to a truly fluent, persuasive communicator. They will learn to debate, negotiate, deduce, regret, and emphasize. The grammar here is sophisticated, and the vocabulary requires high-level precision.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The High-Stakes Professional. This structure follows a professional handling a major corporate project, navigating office politics, negotiating a major personal purchase

(like a house), managing a crisis, and reflecting on the outcomes. It teaches B2 language in an incredibly practical, stress-tested environment.

- Study Unit 1: "The Big Pitch"
    - Main Topic: Structuring a Presentation & Timelines.
    - Vocabulary Types: Corporate boardroom vocabulary (budget, forecast, stakeholders), signposting phrases ("First and foremost").
    - Grammar Points: Future Perfect ("By next quarter, we will have launched...").
    - Scenarios: Delivering a persuasive pitch to executives.
    - Settings: The Corporate Boardroom.
-
- Study Unit 2: "The Pushback"
    - Main Topic: Hedging and Diplomatic Disagreement.
    - Vocabulary Types: Hedging phrases ("It seems to me," "Arguably"), nuanced contrast connectors (nevertheless, provided that).
    - Grammar Points: Tag Questions for agreement ("You've seen the data, haven't you?").
    - Scenarios: Defending a proposal against skeptical colleagues without being aggressive.
    - Settings: A heated team meeting.
-
- Study Unit 3: "The Delegator"
    - Main Topic: Outsourcing and Management.
    - Vocabulary Types: Management verbs (delegate, implement, spearhead), office tech.
    - Grammar Points: Causative Verbs (have/get something done).
    - Scenarios: Instructing someone else to do a task ("I need to get this report printed").
    - Settings: A Manager's Office / The copy room.
-
- Study Unit 4: "The Snag"
    - Main Topic: Crisis, Frustration & Duration.
    - Vocabulary Types: Advanced idioms of frustration (elephant in the room, cut to the chase, out of hand).
    - Grammar Points: Past Perfect Continuous ("We had been negotiating for hours when they walked out.").
    - Scenarios: Explaining a sudden breakdown in a plan or system.

    - Settings: A panicked phone call to the boss.
-
- Study Unit 5: "The Autopsy"
    - Main Topic: Analyzing the Past & Guesses.
    - Vocabulary Types: Analytical verbs, blame, evidence.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Past Deduction (They must have forgotten; We could have lost the client).
    - Scenarios: Trying to figure out why a project failed based on clues.
    - Settings: A post-mortem project meeting.
-
- Study Unit 6: "The Regret"
    - Main Topic: Mistakes and Unreality.
    - Vocabulary Types: Expressions of regret, binomials (pros and cons, wear and tear).
    - Grammar Points: The 3rd Conditional (If I had known, I would have acted differently).
    - Scenarios: Venting to a friend about a missed opportunity or mistake.
    - Settings: An after-work happy hour.
-
- Study Unit 7: "The Ripple Effect"
    - Main Topic: Connecting Past Actions to Present Realities.
    - Vocabulary Types: Consequences, abstract nouns (liability, advantage, assumption).
    - Grammar Points: Mixed Conditionals (If we hadn't missed the flight, we would be in Paris right now).
    - Scenarios: Discussing how past choices affect the current situation.
    - Settings: A strategy recalibration meeting.
-
- Study Unit 8: "The Lease Agreement"
    - Main Topic: High-Stakes Personal Negotiation.
    - Vocabulary Types: Real estate (lease, tenant, security deposit), contractual verbs (compromise, bind).
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Conditionals (as long as, provided that, unless).
    - Scenarios: Negotiating terms with a landlord or seller.
    - Settings: A Real Estate Office.
-
- Study Unit 9: "Setting the Record Straight"

    - Main Topic: Emphasis and Defending Your Actions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Persuasive rhetoric, defensive adjectives (crucial, inevitable).
    - Grammar Points: Cleft Sentences ("What I really meant was..." / "It was John who made the error.").
    - Scenarios: Clearing up a major misunderstanding forcefully but politely.
    - Settings: An HR conflict resolution meeting.
-
- Study Unit 10: "The Performance Review"
    - Main Topic: Evaluating Success.
    - Vocabulary Types: Track record, constructive criticism, asset, B2 phrasal verbs (boil down to, follow up on).
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Passives (It is believed that; The goals were exceeded).
    - Scenarios: Defending your yearly performance to get a raise.
    - Settings: A one-on-one with the CEO.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Macro-Societal Domains. B2 learners must be able to read the news, understand complex media, and debate societal issues. This structure tackles advanced vocabulary and grammar through specific, high-level spheres of modern American life.

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of Justice
    - Main Topic: Crime, Punishment, and the Law.
    - Vocabulary Types: Courtroom jargon (defendant, guilty, testimony, sue).
    - Grammar Points: Reporting Passives (It is reported that the suspect fled).
    - Scenarios: Discussing a high-profile true crime case or lawsuit.
    - Settings: Jury duty waiting room / Watching the evening news.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of the Earth
    - Main Topic: Environment and Global Issues.
    - Vocabulary Types: Climate change, sustainable, emissions, fossil fuels.
    - Grammar Points: Cause & Effect Connectors (consequently, therefore, hence).
    - Scenarios: Debating the pros and cons of environmental policies.
    - Settings: A university symposium / A town hall meeting.

-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of the Consumer
    - Main Topic: Economics and Marketing.
    - Vocabulary Types: Inflation, target demographic, supply and demand, budget.
    - Grammar Points: Future Perfect (By 2030, prices will have doubled).
    - Scenarios: Analyzing why a product is successful or failing.
    - Settings: A marketing agency brainstorming session.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of Well-Being
    - Main Topic: Mental Health and Modern Lifestyles.
    - Vocabulary Types: Burnout, therapy, sedentary, overwhelming, coping mechanisms.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Past Regret (I shouldn't have worked so hard; I ought to have rested).
    - Scenarios: Giving deep, empathetic advice to a burnt-out friend.
    - Settings: A coffee shop / A therapist's office.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of Rhetoric
    - Main Topic: Debating and Critical Thinking.
    - Vocabulary Types: Fallacy, objective vs. subjective, valid point, concession phrases.
    - Grammar Points: Tag Questions (That's a subjective opinion, isn't it?).
    - Scenarios: Playing "Devil's Advocate" in a friendly debate.
    - Settings: A debate club / A late-night diner discussion.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of Innovation
    - Main Topic: Technology and AI.
    - Vocabulary Types: Artificial intelligence, algorithms, unprecedented, disruptive.
    - Grammar Points: Cleft Sentences for emphasis (What worries me is the lack of privacy).
    - Scenarios: Discussing the ethical implications of a new technology.
    - Settings: A tech startup lounge.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of the Critic
    - Main Topic: Fine Arts, Media, and Nuance.
    - Vocabulary Types: Nuanced adjectives (cynical, pragmatic, ambiguous, compelling).

    - Grammar Points: Reduced Relative Clauses (The man directing the film is a genius).
    - Scenarios: Writing or delivering an in-depth review of a film or book.
    - Settings: A book club / A film festival.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of the "What If"
    - Main Topic: Alternate Histories.
    - Vocabulary Types: Historical events, abstract concepts of society.
    - Grammar Points: 3rd Conditional (If the internet hadn't been invented...).
    - Scenarios: Discussing how different the world would be if history had changed.
    - Settings: A history seminar.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Sphere of Service
    - Main Topic: Navigating Bureaucracy and Repairs.
    - Vocabulary Types: Maintenance, mechanics, administrative words.
    - Grammar Points: Causative Verbs (have/get something done).
    - Scenarios: Dealing with home renovations, car repairs, or bureaucratic paperwork.
    - Settings: A mechanic's garage / A government office.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Sphere of the Diplomat
    - Main Topic: Conflict Resolution.
    - Vocabulary Types: Compromise, negotiate, meet halfway, agree to disagree.
    - Grammar Points: Hedging and Softening (I tend to think that; With all due respect).
    - Scenarios: De-escalating an argument between two friends or colleagues.
    - Settings: A mediation session.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (12 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: Advanced Grammatical Mechanics. At B2, grammar dictates tone. This structure isolates the 12 most difficult syntactical structures in upper-intermediate English, using vocabulary as the fuel to practice the mechanics of rhetoric, emphasis, and unreality.

- Study Unit 1: The "Looking Back from Tomorrow"
    - Main Topic: Completing the Future.
    - Vocabulary Types: Career goals, infrastructure, macro-timelines.

    - Grammar Points: Future Perfect.
    - Scenarios: "By the time I turn 40, I will have started my own company."
    - Settings: A 5-year planning session.
-
- Study Unit 2: The "Marathon in the Past"
    - Main Topic: Exhaustive Past Actions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Fatigue, long-term tasks, academic research.
    - Grammar Points: Past Perfect Continuous.
    - Scenarios: "I had been driving for 10 hours when the tire blew out."
    - Settings: Explaining a gruelling ordeal.
-
- Study Unit 3: The "What If Yesterday"
    - Main Topic: The Unreal Past.
    - Vocabulary Types: Mistakes, missed connections, serendipity.
    - Grammar Points: 3rd Conditional.
    - Scenarios: "If I had set my alarm, I wouldn't have missed the interview."
    - Settings: Regretful reflection.
-
- Study Unit 4: The "Ripple Effect"
    - Main Topic: Connecting Timelines.
    - Vocabulary Types: Investments, education, life choices.
    - Grammar Points: Mixed Conditionals.
    - Scenarios: "If I had studied law (past), I would be rich now (present)."
    - Settings: Discussing life choices.
-
- Study Unit 5: The "Armchair Detective"
    - Main Topic: Past Logic.
    - Vocabulary Types: Clues, crime, alibis.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Past Deduction (must have, might have, can't have).
    - Scenarios: "He can't have stolen the car; he was with me all night!"
    - Settings: A True Crime analysis.
-
- Study Unit 6: The "Hindsight Bias"
    - Main Topic: Unsolicited Advice & Regret.
    - Vocabulary Types: Apologies, financial blunders, relationship issues.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of Past Regret (should have, ought to have).

    - Scenarios: "You shouldn't have said that to her."
    - Settings: Giving tough love to a friend.
-
- Study Unit 7: The "Delegator"
    - Main Topic: Arranging Services.
    - Vocabulary Types: Haircuts, mechanics, dry-cleaning, IT support.
    - Grammar Points: Causative Verbs (Get / Have something done).
    - Scenarios: "I need to get my suit dry-cleaned for the wedding."
    - Settings: Running weekend errands.
-
- Study Unit 8: The "Spotlight"
    - Main Topic: Shifting Syntax for Emphasis.
    - Vocabulary Types: Frustrations, absolute needs, arguments.
    - Grammar Points: Cleft Sentences (What I need is... / It was him who...).
    - Scenarios: "What really bothers me is his attitude."
    - Settings: An argument / Setting boundaries.
-
- Study Unit 9: The "Ghost Actor"
    - Main Topic: Formal Distance.
    - Vocabulary Types: Journalism, rumors, corporate PR.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Passives / Reporting Passives (It is believed that...).
    - Scenarios: "It is estimated that profits will fall."
    - Settings: Writing a formal report.
-
- Study Unit 10: The "Concise Describer"
    - Main Topic: Fluidity and Brevity.
    - Vocabulary Types: Crowds, locations, physical descriptions.
    - Grammar Points: Reduced Relative Clauses.
    - Scenarios: "The woman standing by the door is the CEO."
    - Settings: A crowded networking event.
-
- Study Unit 11: The "Alternative Conditions"
    - Main Topic: Strict Boundaries.
    - Vocabulary Types: Contracts, negotiations, rules.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Conjunctions (Unless, As long as, Provided that).
    - Scenarios: "I will sign the contract provided that you lower the fee."

    - Settings: A business negotiation.
-
- Study Unit 12: The "Confirmation Seeker"
    - Main Topic: Conversational Flow.
    - Vocabulary Types: Social socializing, checking facts, casual banter.
    - Grammar Points: Tag Questions.
    - Scenarios: "You're coming to the party, aren't you?"
    - Settings: A casual dinner party.
-

C1

Welcome to Level C1 (Advanced / Effective Operational Proficiency).

At the C1 level, learners are no longer just participating in society; they are critically analyzing it, leading it, and shaping its discourse. The curriculum moves from standard communication to intellectual dominance, aesthetic expression, and diplomatic mastery.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Thought Leader's Journey. This structure follows an expert (the learner) navigating the highest echelons of professional and public life. They defend an academic thesis, deliver a keynote, navigate a massive corporate/political crisis, and finally reflect on their legacy. It contextualizes C1's highly abstract vocabulary in high-stakes environments.

- Study Unit 1: "The Thesis Defense"
    - Main Topic: Academia and Epistemology.
    - Vocabulary Types: Academic lexicon (paradigm, empirical, anomaly), Socratic hedging ("I am inclined to postulate...").
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Participle Clauses ("Having exhaustively analyzed the data...").
    - Scenarios: Defending a complex theory against skeptical professors.
    - Settings: A University Lecture Hall.
-

- Study Unit 2: "The Keynote Address"
    - Main Topic: Visionary Oratory & Systemic Change.
    - Vocabulary Types: Macro-economics, tech innovation, rhetorical signposting ("To extrapolate a broader trend...").
    - Grammar Points: Inversion with Negative Adverbials ("Seldom have we witnessed such a shift...").
    - Scenarios: Delivering a captivating speech to an audience of industry peers.
    - Settings: A Global Think-Tank Summit.
-
- Study Unit 3: "The Boardroom Coup"
    - Main Topic: High-Stakes Negotiation & Executive Action.
    - Vocabulary Types: Corporate finance (fiduciary, hostile takeover, liability), absolute authority expressions.
    - Grammar Points: The Subjunctive Mood for Mandates ("I demand that he be dismissed...").
    - Scenarios: Ousting a corrupt CEO or navigating a hostile corporate takeover.
    - Settings: The Executive Boardroom.
-
- Study Unit 4: "The PR Nightmare"
    - Main Topic: Crisis Management & Diplomacy.
    - Vocabulary Types: De-escalation phrases, public relations jargon, empathy markers.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Passives to distance agency ("Mistakes were made; protocols were breached").
    - Scenarios: Handling a vicious press conference after a company scandal.
    - Settings: A Press Briefing Room.
-
- Study Unit 5: "The Backroom Treaty"
    - Main Topic: Geopolitics and Concessions.
    - Vocabulary Types: Governance (embargo, sovereignty, coalition), dialectical rebuttals.
    - Grammar Points: Nuanced Conditionals ("Were we to accept these terms, our sovereignty would be compromised.").
    - Scenarios: Brokering a fragile peace deal or trade agreement.
    - Settings: Closed-door Diplomatic Chambers.
-

- Study Unit 6: "The Stand-Up Routine"
    - Main Topic: Sarcasm, Irony, and Cultural Metaphors.
    - Vocabulary Types: Advanced American idioms (jump the shark, a Sisyphean task), comedic timing, understatement.
    - Grammar Points: Shifting syntax for comedic/dramatic effect; rhetorical questions.
    - Scenarios: Deciphering a satirical news broadcast or stand-up comedy special.
    - Settings: A Comedy Club / Watching Late-Night TV.
-
- Study Unit 7: "The Cultural Critique"
    - Main Topic: Fine Arts, Media, and Aesthetics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Aesthetic adjectives (avant-garde, derivative, poignant), literary nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Ellipsis and Substitution to avoid repetition in elegant prose.
    - Scenarios: Writing a scathing or glowing review of a controversial film or art exhibit.
    - Settings: An Art Gallery Opening.
-
- Study Unit 8: "The Courtroom Cross-Examination"
    - Main Topic: Law, Logic, and Fallacies.
    - Vocabulary Types: Jurisprudence (testimony, perjury, precedent), logical fallacies (straw man, tautology).
    - Grammar Points: Emphatic Fronting and Cleft Sentences ("It was precisely his arrogance that led to...").
    - Scenarios: Interrogating a witness to expose a lie.
    - Settings: The Supreme Court / Witness Stand.
-
- Study Unit 9: "The Philosophical Debate"
    - Main Topic: The Human Condition & Ethics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Psychology (cognitive dissonance, atomization), Socratic inquiries.
    - Grammar Points: Mixed timelines in hypothetical ethical dilemmas.
    - Scenarios: Debating the moral implications of artificial intelligence or bioethics.
    - Settings: A Late-Night Diner / A Podcast Interview.
-
- Study Unit 10: "The Memoir"
    - Main Topic: Legacy and Historical Reflection.

    - Vocabulary Types: Literary verbs (reminisce, obfuscate, intertwine), grand historical nouns.
    - Grammar Points: "Future in the Past" ("Little did I know that this decision would ignite a revolution.").
    - Scenarios: Writing the opening chapter of a bestselling autobiography.
    - Settings: A private study / A book signing.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Architectures of Modernity. This structure divides C1 into massive societal domains. Because C1 learners must read complex articles (like The New Yorker or The Economist), each unit immerses the learner in the specific vocabulary, tone, and grammar of a distinct intellectual sphere.

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of Epistemology
    - Main Topic: Knowledge and Academia.
    - Vocabulary Types: Theory, research methodologies, epistemic adverbs (ostensibly, arguably).
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Participle Clauses for academic writing.
    - Scenarios: Analyzing a controversial peer-reviewed study.
    - Settings: A University Laboratory / Academic Symposium.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of Governance
    - Main Topic: Politics and the State.
    - Vocabulary Types: Democracy, authoritarianism, civic duty, advocacy.
    - Grammar Points: The Subjunctive Mood for legal/political mandates.
    - Scenarios: Drafting a piece of legislation or lobbying a senator.
    - Settings: Capitol Hill / A Town Hall.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of the Market
    - Main Topic: Macroeconomics and Capitalism.
    - Vocabulary Types: Market fluctuations, systemic inequality, monopolies, inflation.
    - Grammar Points: Systemic Causality Phrases ("Precipitating a cascading effect...").
    - Scenarios: Analyzing the global fallout of a stock market crash.
    - Settings: Wall Street / Financial News Desk.

-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of the Canvas
    - Main Topic: Fine Arts and Creativity.
    - Vocabulary Types: Highly specific descriptive adjectives, emotional resonance.
    - Grammar Points: Cleft Sentences to emphasize aesthetic impact.
    - Scenarios: Critiquing a controversial, avant-garde architectural design.
    - Settings: An Architecture Firm / A Museum Exhibit.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of the Psyche
    - Main Topic: Psychology and Human Behavior.
    - Vocabulary Types: Mental states, trauma, resilience, sociology of the mundane.
    - Grammar Points: Abstract Noun Clauses.
    - Scenarios: Diagnosing a societal trend, like "burnout" or "doomscrolling."
    - Settings: A Psychological Conference / Therapy Session.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of the Algorithm
    - Main Topic: Technology, AI, and Ethics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Cybernetics, algorithms, existential threats, bias.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Conditionals for dystopian/utopian predictions.
    - Scenarios: Debating whether AI should be granted civil rights.
    - Settings: A Silicon Valley Think-Tank.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of the Court
    - Main Topic: Justice, Rights, and the Law.
    - Vocabulary Types: Legal doctrines, prosecution, jurisprudence.
    - Grammar Points: Emphatic Concession ("While I grant you that premise, however...").
    - Scenarios: Arguing a constitutional loophole in front of a judge.
    - Settings: The Courtroom.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of the Pen
    - Main Topic: Literature and Journalism.
    - Vocabulary Types: Metaphors, narrative pacing, literary genres.
    - Grammar Points: Inversion with Negative Adverbials for dramatic storytelling.
    - Scenarios: Unpacking the hidden subtext of a classic American novel.
    - Settings: A Literature Seminar / A Publisher's Office.

-
- Study Unit 9: The Sphere of the Crisis
    - Main Topic: Disaster and De-escalation.
    - Vocabulary Types: Conflict resolution, natural disasters, humanitarian aid.
    - Grammar Points: Imperatives and urgency markers.
    - Scenarios: Managing the logistics of a sudden environmental catastrophe.
    - Settings: A FEMA Command Center / A War Room.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Sphere of the Cosmos
    - Main Topic: Advanced Sciences and Existence.
    - Vocabulary Types: Astronomy, biology, quantum physics, the infinite.
    - Grammar Points: Ellipsis and Socratic Questioning.
    - Scenarios: Discussing humanity's place in the universe.
    - Settings: An Observatory / A Late-Night Philosophical Chat.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (12 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Rhetorical Masterclass. At C1, the learner already "knows" English grammar. This structure focuses purely on how to manipulate it. Each unit is dedicated to mastering one specific, high-level rhetorical or syntactical tool, using advanced vocabulary as the raw material.

- Study Unit 1: The Compressor
    - Main Topic: Flow and Conciseness.
    - Vocabulary Types: Academic verbs and process nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Participle Clauses ("Driven by ambition, she...").
    - Scenarios: Rewriting clunky, wordy reports into elegant, flowing academic prose.
    - Settings: A Writing Workshop.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Dictator
    - Main Topic: Formal Mandates and Urgency.
    - Vocabulary Types: Governance and corporate law.
    - Grammar Points: The Subjunctive Mood ("It is crucial that he remain silent.").
    - Scenarios: Issuing binding legal or corporate directives.
    - Settings: A Corporate Legal Department.
-

- Study Unit 3: The Inverter
    - Main Topic: Oratorical Drama.
    - Vocabulary Types: Catastrophes, political speeches.
    - Grammar Points: Inversion with Negative Adverbials ("Not only did they fail, but they also lied.").
    - Scenarios: Delivering a rousing, dramatic speech to rally a crowd.
    - Settings: A Political Rally.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Hedger
    - Main Topic: Academic Protection & Nuance.
    - Vocabulary Types: Epistemic adverbs (presumably, arguably, inevitably).
    - Grammar Points: Softening structures and modal verbs of likelihood.
    - Scenarios: Presenting a theory without getting cornered by critics.
    - Settings: A Scientific Peer-Review Board.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Conceder
    - Main Topic: The Art of the Rebuttal.
    - Vocabulary Types: Argumentative nouns (fallacy, premise, dichotomy).
    - Grammar Points: Emphatic Concession structures ("Be that as it may...").
    - Scenarios: Granting an opponent a minor point to destroy their main argument.
    - Settings: A Televised Political Debate.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Architect
    - Main Topic: Signposting Massive Ideas.
    - Vocabulary Types: Structural transition phrases.
    - Grammar Points: Complex sequencing and macro-organization.
    - Scenarios: Guiding an audience through a 20-minute, highly complex presentation.
    - Settings: A TED Talk Stage.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Prophet
    - Main Topic: Destiny and Narrative Pacing.
    - Vocabulary Types: Historical events, literary adjectives.
    - Grammar Points: The "Future in the Past" ("He was to become the greatest leader...").
    - Scenarios: Narrating a historical documentary.
    - Settings: A Recording Studio / History Lecture.

-
- Study Unit 8: The Ironist
    - Main Topic: Sarcasm, Subtext, and Wit.
    - Vocabulary Types: Deep cultural idioms, satirical phrasing.
    - Grammar Points: Intonational grammar (using stress to mean the opposite of the words).
    - Scenarios: Delivering backhanded compliments and decoding passive-aggression.
    - Settings: A High-Society Gala.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Omitter
    - Main Topic: Conversational Mastery.
    - Vocabulary Types: Social dynamics.
    - Grammar Points: Ellipsis and Substitution ("She wanted to go, but couldn't.").
    - Scenarios: Making formal language sound perfectly natural and unscripted.
    - Settings: A high-level networking mixer.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Catalyst
    - Main Topic: Systemic Cause and Effect.
    - Vocabulary Types: Economic shifts, cascading consequences.
    - Grammar Points: Complex cause/effect syntax ("Precipitating a domino effect...").
    - Scenarios: Explaining how a small local event caused a global crisis.
    - Settings: An Economics Classroom.
-
- Study Unit 11: The Interrogator
    - Main Topic: Socratic Questioning.
    - Vocabulary Types: Philosophical inquiries, ethics.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced rhetorical question structures.
    - Scenarios: Breaking down someone's core beliefs using only targeted questions.
    - Settings: A late-night philosophical debate.
-
- Study Unit 12: The Diplomat
    - Main Topic: Absolute De-escalation.
    - Vocabulary Types: Empathy markers, conflict resolution, mitigating risk.
    - Grammar Points: Nuanced passive voice to remove blame ("Mistakes have occurred.").
    - Scenarios: Stepping between two furious parties to broker peace.

    - Settings: A Hostage Negotiation / HR Dispute.
-

C2

Welcome to the absolute zenith of the framework: Level C2 (Mastery / Proficiency).

At the C2 level, the learner has transcended the need to merely communicate. They are now operating at the level of a native intellectual, a Pulitzer-prize-winning author, or a Supreme Court Justice. The curriculum is no longer about acquiring rules, but about wielding language as an instrument of absolute power, aesthetic beauty, and Socratic authority.

TRY 1: The Narrative Arc Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Magnum Opus. This structure follows a world-class intellectual (the learner) through the defining moments of their career. They uncover a systemic crisis, draft a radical manifesto, defend it against hostile elites, navigate geopolitical fallout, and finally reflect on their legacy. It contextualizes the rarest C2 vocabulary in the highest-stakes environments on Earth.

- Study Unit 1: "The Epistemic Awakening"
    - Main Topic: Identifying Systemic Flaws & Ontology.
    - Vocabulary Types: Epistemology, causality, hyper-precise adjectives (anomalous, moribund).
    - Grammar Points: Absolute Participial Phrases ("The foundational premise having collapsed...").
    - Scenarios: Realizing a globally accepted theory is fundamentally bankrupt.
    - Settings: A secluded research laboratory / A private study.
-
- Study Unit 2: "The Manifesto"
    - Main Topic: Radical Propositions & Oratory.
    - Vocabulary Types: Revolutionary rhetoric, socio-economics, action verbs (eviscerate, unequivocally endorse).
    - Grammar Points: Chiasmus and Parallelism ("We do not bend the truth to fit the law; we bend the law to fit the truth.").

    - Scenarios: Drafting a document that will permanently disrupt the status quo.
    - Settings: A dimly lit desk at midnight.
-
- Study Unit 3: "The Crucible of Peer Review"
    - Main Topic: Academic Bloodsport & Dialectics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Fallacies (sophistry, tautology), dialectical rebuttals, concessive frames.
    - Grammar Points: Quadruple-Embedded Relative Clauses to map out complex theoretical counter-arguments.
    - Scenarios: Defending a radical thesis against a panel of hostile, elite academics.
    - Settings: A closed-door Ivy League colloquium.
-
- Study Unit 4: "The Geopolitical Chessboard"
    - Main Topic: Statecraft and Hegemony.
    - Vocabulary Types: Realpolitik, brinkmanship, diplomatic evasion, abstract governance nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Extreme Inversions ("Under no circumstances shall we cede sovereignty...").
    - Scenarios: Negotiating a fragile detente between warring superpowers.
    - Settings: The United Nations General Assembly / A secure bunker.
-
- Study Unit 5: "The Supreme Court Argument"
    - Main Topic: Jurisprudence and Constitutional Deconstruction.
    - Vocabulary Types: Legal doctrines (certiorari, fiduciary, ultra vires), archaic connectors (notwithstanding, hitherto).
    - Grammar Points: The Subjunctive Mood for absolute legal mandates.
    - Scenarios: Arguing the nuances of constitutional law to save an entire industry.
    - Settings: The Supreme Court of the United States.
-
- Study Unit 6: "The Media Inquisition"
    - Main Topic: Satire, Hostility, and Deflection.
    - Vocabulary Types: Satirical character judgments, deep idioms (a Pyrrhic victory, a red herring).
    - Grammar Points: Ellipsis and double entendres to deliberately obfuscate agency.
    - Scenarios: Surviving a vicious, televised ambush interview by a hostile journalist.
    - Settings: A live prime-time news broadcast.

-
- Study Unit 7: "The Faustian Bargain"
    - Main Topic: Bioethics and Moral Paradoxes.
    - Vocabulary Types: Existentialism, transhumanism, metaphysical inquiries.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Nuanced Conditionals ("Were humanity to achieve immortality...").
    - Scenarios: Deciding whether to release a dangerous but miraculous technology to the public.
    - Settings: A confidential corporate ethics board meeting.
-
- Study Unit 8: "The Hegemonic Shift"
    - Main Topic: Executing Systemic Change.
    - Vocabulary Types: Executive crisis-management maneuvers, verbs of absolute action (annihilate, orchestrate).
    - Grammar Points: Polysyndeton and Asyndeton for rhetorical pacing during a crisis.
    - Scenarios: Launching the initiative that permanently alters global power dynamics.
    - Settings: A global command center.
-
- Study Unit 9: "The Swan Song"
    - Main Topic: Aphorisms and Legacy.
    - Vocabulary Types: Poetic/literary transitions, historical allusions (crossing the Rubicon).
    - Grammar Points: The "Historic Present" for sweeping narrative storytelling.
    - Scenarios: Delivering a final, legendary keynote address before stepping down from power.
    - Settings: A Nobel Prize acceptance speech.
-
- Study Unit 10: "The Cosmological Retrospective"
    - Main Topic: The Nature of Existence.
    - Vocabulary Types: Astrophysics, ontology, profound emotional adjectives (ephemeral, ethereal).
    - Grammar Points: Stylistic fragments and verbless clauses to create a literary, philosophical cadence.
    - Scenarios: Writing the concluding chapter of a Pulitzer-winning memoir.
    - Settings: A quiet terrace overlooking the ocean.
-

TRY 2: The Thematic "Spheres" Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Pillars of Civilization. A C2 speaker must be able to read highly dense, esoteric texts in fields they are not necessarily experts in. This structure immerses the learner in the absolute core mechanics of human society, utilizing the highly specific academic vocabulary and syntax of each realm.

- Study Unit 1: The Sphere of Ontology
    - Main Topic: The Philosophy of Being and Reality.
    - Vocabulary Types: Metaphysics, solipsism, dualism, existential nouns.
    - Grammar Points: Epistemic hedging ("It is theoretically conceivable, albeit highly improbable...").
    - Scenarios: Debating the simulation theory or the nature of consciousness.
    - Settings: A Philosophy Seminar.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Sphere of the Anthropocene
    - Main Topic: Advanced Ecology and Mass Extinction.
    - Vocabulary Types: Climatology, bioremediation, ecological collapse, scientific precision.
    - Grammar Points: Complex cause/effect syntax ("Precipitating a cascading trophic collapse...").
    - Scenarios: Analyzing a dense IPCC climate report on biodiversity loss.
    - Settings: An International Climate Summit.
-
- Study Unit 3: The Sphere of Realpolitik
    - Main Topic: Ruthless Statecraft and Power Dynamics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Machiavellianism, oligarchy, demagoguery, coercion.
    - Grammar Points: Rhetorical questions challenging authority ("Are we to accept this revisionist history?").
    - Scenarios: Deconstructing a dictator's propaganda campaign.
    - Settings: A Geopolitical Intelligence Briefing.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Sphere of Semiotics
    - Main Topic: Language, Symbols, and Subtext.
    - Vocabulary Types: Linguistics, hyper-reality, commodification, double-entendres.

    - Grammar Points: Cleft Sentences for dissecting meaning ("It is not the text itself, but the subtext that reveals...").
    - Scenarios: Analyzing how modern advertising manipulates the collective unconscious.
    - Settings: A Cultural Studies Lecture.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Sphere of Jurisprudence
    - Main Topic: The Philosophy of Law and Morality.
    - Vocabulary Types: Habeas corpus, draconianism, equity, disenfranchisement.
    - Grammar Points: Quadruple-embedded clauses mirroring complex legal statutes.
    - Scenarios: Interpreting a 200-year-old constitutional amendment in a modern context.
    - Settings: An Appellate Court Library.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Sphere of Macroeconomics
    - Main Topic: The Architecture of Global Finance.
    - Vocabulary Types: Fiat currency, arbitrage, deflationary spirals, crony-capitalism.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced passive voice for systemic description ("The markets were deliberately insulated...").
    - Scenarios: Forecasting the economic fallout of a major sovereign debt default.
    - Settings: The World Economic Forum at Davos.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Sphere of Aesthetics
    - Main Topic: Avant-Garde Arts and Literary Criticism.
    - Vocabulary Types: Chiaroscuro, post-modernism, cacophony, sensory adjectives.
    - Grammar Points: Prosody and sentence musicality; deliberate syntactic rule-breaking for art.
    - Scenarios: Critiquing a profoundly polarizing piece of contemporary art.
    - Settings: A Manhattan Art Gallery / Writing for The New Yorker.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Sphere of Psychopathology
    - Main Topic: Societal Madness and Mass Delusion.
    - Vocabulary Types: Narcissism, cognitive dissonance, anomie, societal adjectives.
    - Grammar Points: Modals of deduction dealing with mass psychology.
    - Scenarios: Explaining the rise of a dangerous cult or conspiracy theory.
    - Settings: A Sociology Symposium.

-
- Study Unit 9: The Sphere of Bioethics
    - Main Topic: Genetic Engineering and the Future of Humanity.
    - Vocabulary Types: Eugenics, epigenetics, moral paradoxes, taxonomy.
    - Grammar Points: Socratic inquiries probing ethical limits.
    - Scenarios: Debating the morality of designer babies and radical life extension.
    - Settings: A Medical Ethics Review Board.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Sphere of the Cosmos
    - Main Topic: Astrophysics and The Infinite.
    - Vocabulary Types: Relativity, entropy, astrophysics, temporal mechanics.
    - Grammar Points: "Were it to..." and advanced conditional paradoxes.
    - Scenarios: Discussing humanity's insignificance in the face of deep time.
    - Settings: An Observatory during a meteor shower.
-

TRY 3: The Structural Escalation Approach (10 Study Units)

Pedagogical Concept: The Rhetorical Armory. At C2, the curriculum is fundamentally an acting class and an elite writing seminar. This structure focuses purely on adopting specific "intellectual personas." It teaches the learner how to manipulate grammar and vocabulary to command a room, destroy an argument, or inspire a nation.

- Study Unit 1: The Aphorist
    - Main Topic: Crafting Maxims and Philosophical Quotes.
    - Vocabulary Types: Deep philosophical nouns and absolute verbs.
    - Grammar Points: Chiasmus and Parallelism.
    - Scenarios: Creating memorable, quote-worthy statements during an interview.
    - Settings: A Magazine Profile Interview.
-
- Study Unit 2: The Obfuscator
    - Main Topic: Plausible Deniability and Legalise.
    - Vocabulary Types: Bureaucratic jargon, complex hedging, corporate finance.
    - Grammar Points: Mastery of the Passive Voice to hide who committed an action.
    - Scenarios: Testifying before Congress without actually answering the questions.
    - Settings: A Congressional Hearing.

-
- Study Unit 3: The Socratic Gadfly
    - Main Topic: Deconstructing Premises via Questioning.
    - Vocabulary Types: Logical fallacies, epistemology, ethical dilemmas.
    - Grammar Points: Advanced Interrogative Syntax and rhetorical challenges.
    - Scenarios: Dismantling a confident opponent's argument using only targeted questions.
    - Settings: A televised university debate.
-
- Study Unit 4: The Orator
    - Main Topic: Prosody, Rhythm, and Crowd Control.
    - Vocabulary Types: Poetic adjectives, historical allusions.
    - Grammar Points: Asyndeton, Polysyndeton, and emphatic fronting (Inversions).
    - Scenarios: Delivering a eulogy or a rallying cry to a divided group.
    - Settings: A massive public memorial or protest.
-
- Study Unit 5: The Satirist
    - Main Topic: Wit, Irony, and Damning with Faint Praise.
    - Vocabulary Types: Cynical character judgments, double-entendres, litotes (e.g., "It was not completely terrible").
    - Grammar Points: Intentional ambiguity and tonal contradiction.
    - Scenarios: Writing a brilliantly passive-aggressive email or review.
    - Settings: High-society banter / A literary magazine column.
-
- Study Unit 6: The Labyrinthine Architect
    - Main Topic: Sustaining Complex Academic Thought.
    - Vocabulary Types: Arcane literature, scientific precision.
    - Grammar Points: Quadruple-Embedded Clauses (maintaining grammatical agreement across 40+ word sentences).
    - Scenarios: Writing a dense, flawless introductory paragraph to a thesis.
    - Settings: A quiet study room.
-
- Study Unit 7: The Diplomatic Assassin
    - Main Topic: Absolute Authority Wrapped in Politeness.
    - Vocabulary Types: Legal maneuvers, uncompromising idioms (drawing a line in the sand).

    - Grammar Points: The Subjunctive Mood for velvet-glove mandates.
    - Scenarios: Firing a high-level executive or terminating a major contract with a smile.
    - Settings: A corner office with the door closed.
-
- Study Unit 8: The Historian
    - Main Topic: Sweeping Narrative Sweeps and Pacing.
    - Vocabulary Types: Era-defining nouns (zeitgeist, interregnum), mythological allusions.
    - Grammar Points: The Historic Present and Future in the Past.
    - Scenarios: Recounting the rise and fall of a company or an empire.
    - Settings: A documentary voice-over booth / A fireside chat.
-
- Study Unit 9: The Logician
    - Main Topic: Syllogisms and Dialectics.
    - Vocabulary Types: Academic signposting, causal links, rigorous connectives.
    - Grammar Points: Concessive Syntactical Frames (Granting a premise to destroy a conclusion).
    - Scenarios: Writing a point-by-point rebuttal to a widely accepted scientific or economic theory.
    - Settings: A scholarly editorial board.
-
- Study Unit 10: The Mythologist
    - Main Topic: Flawless Deployment of Deep Idioms.
    - Vocabulary Types: Rare C2 Idioms (Sword of Damocles, Augean Stables, Procrustean bed).
    - Grammar Points: Absolute Participial Phrases to weave mythology into modern contexts.
    - Scenarios: Using ancient allegories to explain modern technological or political crises.
    - Settings: An elite salon dinner conversation.
-